Every permit issued under this article shall be valid for such length of time stated thereon, as requested by the applicant for such permit, but in no instance for longer than six days. On or before the date of expiration of such permit, the holder thereof shall be responsible for thoroughly and completely refilling such opening or excavation, puddling or ramming so as to prevent any settling thereof and, in the case of an improved street or alley or paved sidewalk, for restoring the surface thereof to the same condition as it was in immediately prior to such opening or excavation, and the Borough shall inspect such refilling and restoration in order to determine whether such work shall have been done satisfactorily, provided that under special circumstances, at his or her discretion, the Borough may authorize the extension of a permit for a stated and limited time or granting of a permit for a longer period of time than six days.

Any person who shall violate or fail to conform to any of the provisions of this article shall, for every such violation or failure to conform, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $600 and costs of prosecution and, in default of payment of such fine and costs, to imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 30 days, provided that each day's continuance of a violation or failure to conform shall constitute a separate violation.

Verification and Certifications I declare that all information submitted with this application is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. I agree to comply with the provisions of all applicable ordinances of the Borough of Somerset. If I am acting on behalf of others, I certify that I have the authority. I understand that the statements herein are made subject to the penalties of 18 PA. Cons. Statutes Section 4904 relating to unsworn falsification to authorities.
